Please read Conditions before signing

1. This Permit is issued subject to the University's Parking Regulations and the Road Safety Act 1986, Road Safety (General) Regulations 1999 and Transport Act 1983.
2. A vehicle parked at the University without displaying a current permit, for the area in which it is parked, is infringing regulations and will incur a Parking Infringement Notice.
3. If for any reason you are unable to display your permit on any given date, a temporary permit is to be obtained from Buildings and Grounds Office, Bendigo.
4. For persons who have more than one vehicle, the permit may be placed on rigid plastic and visibly displayed on the dashboard of the vehicle.
5. If your permit is lost, or damaged a new permit will be issued on presentation of a duly signed Statutory Declaration.
6. The University gives no undertaking that a parking space will be available in any particular area.
7. The University shall not be liable or responsible in any way for the safe keeping or safe custody of any vehicle or its contents while the vehicle is parked, left standing, or being driven within the boundaries of the University.
8. Motorcycles do not need to display a permit, however a permit is to be purchased and the registration number must be recorded on this application form.
9. If your vehicle displays a Disabled permit issued by a Local Government Authority, you are not required to purchase a permit if you park in a designated Disabled bay.
