

Bruce Stone Award for Travel for Postgraduate Students in the School of Molecular Sciences

The School of Molecular Sciences may make funds (up to $500) available to assist postgraduate students to attend national or international conferences at which they are making a presentation, or to attend a course. Preference will be given to students in their second or third year. Funds may be available to support one local (including New Zealand) and one overseas conference/course per candidature. Funds will be distributed on a first come first served basis. The travel fund is administered by the Finance Manager, School of Molecular Sciences, through Departmental Postgraduate Coordinators.

Postgraduate students should supply information about the conference they wish to attend using this Travel Grant application form.
