ROUTLEDGE–GCP&S ESSAY PRIZE 2011

Global Change, Peace & Security is a leading refereed journal published by Routledge in association with the Centre for Dialogue, La Trobe University, Melbourne, Australia.

GCP&S invites entries for the annual Routledge–GCP&S Essay Prize competition.

Please send entries (printed in English and as email attachments only) to gcps@latrobe.edu.au by no later than Monday 12 December 2011.

This competition is designed to encourage outstanding new contributions to research on practical and theoretical questions posed by a rapidly globalising world. It seeks to attract new research into the international dimensions of political, economic and cultural life, and into the contradictions of an increasingly integrated yet fragmented world. Of specific interest are entries that look at events and developments that reverberate beyond the confines of a particular country, and those concerning the sources and consequences of conflict, violence and insecurity, as well as the conditions and prospects for conflict transformation and peacebuilding.

PRIZE*

The winning essay will be refereed with a view to publication in Global Change, Peace & Security. The author will receive the Routledge–GCP&S Essay Prize winner's certificate, as well as US$1000 prize money. All entries will be considered for publication in GCP&S.

*Note: The judges reserve the right not to award the prize should the desired standard not be reached.

ELIGIBILITY

The competition is open to those enrolled in undergraduate or postgraduate degrees, or who have graduated within the previous five years. Previously published pieces, or those that are being considered for publication elsewhere, will not be accepted; nor will essays currently being assessed as part of a degree.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Essays must be between 6000–8000 words in length (including a 100-word abstract).

The style must conform strictly to the instructions set out on the journal's website. On a separate page, please supply your name, full contact details, and institutional affiliation, if applicable. Please visit 'Instructions for Authors': www.tandf.co.uk/journals/gcps before submitting your essay.
