

Faculty of Law and Management

We extend a very big welcome to all our new students.

At the Course Welcomes (see locations below) you will be given important information about your course and settling in to university life, meet fellow students and staff, and have the opportunity to ask questions.

The Course Welcomes will be followed by a morning tea where you will be able to mix with students and staff from across the Faculty.

After morning tea you should attend the academic orientation sessions which are relevant to your course. You only need to choose one from each timeslot.

All students doing double degrees should also attend the Double Degree session at 2.15pm today in the Odeon.

We look forward to meeting you.

DAY 3 continued

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

10 - 11 am STUDY SKILLS SESSION

Location: Undercroft Lecture Theatre
How can I get through the reading? How can I take useful notes? What do they want in an essay? How do I know if it's good enough? What is it ok to ask my lecturer? So many questions, so little time!! As a new student coming to uni for the first time you probably have lots and lots of questions to ask. Studying at uni will more than likely be quite different to what you have done in the past. So... why not come along to the Study Skills Session held by the Faculty where you might just get some answers to those nagging questions and discover some hot tips on how to study more effectively as a tertiary student
