

How to Apply

International students should contact La Trobe International or visit the website below for information on how to apply for the Master's programs. La Trobe International's website also contains important information on studying in Australia including visa and government requirements, facilities and resources, scholarships, campus lifestyle, accommodation, living costs, and support services.

La Trobe International

Phone (+61 3) 9627 4805

Freecall (within Australia): 1800 619 768

Fax (+61 3) 9479 3660

Email international@latrobe.edu.au

Web latrobe.edu.au/international

For assistance please contact one of our overseas representatives:

latrobe.edu.au/international/contact

www.latrobe.edu.au/international

La Trobe University is a registered provider under the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS). CRICOS Provider 00115M.

Disclaimer: The information contained in this publication is indicative only and is designed as an aid to students contemplating enrolment at La Trobe University. While every effort is made to provide accurate information, the University does not give any warranties in relation to the accuracy and completeness of the contents. The University does not accept responsibility for any loss or damage occasioned by use of the information contained in this publication.

The University also reserves the right to discontinue or vary arrangements, courses, units and admission requirements at any time without notice and at its discretion. While the University will try to avoid or minimise any inconvenience, changes may also be made to courses, units and staff after enrolment. The University may also set limits on the number of students in a course or unit. For course information updates, please visit:

latrobe.edu.au/international

Course and unit information is also published in the University Handbooks, see:

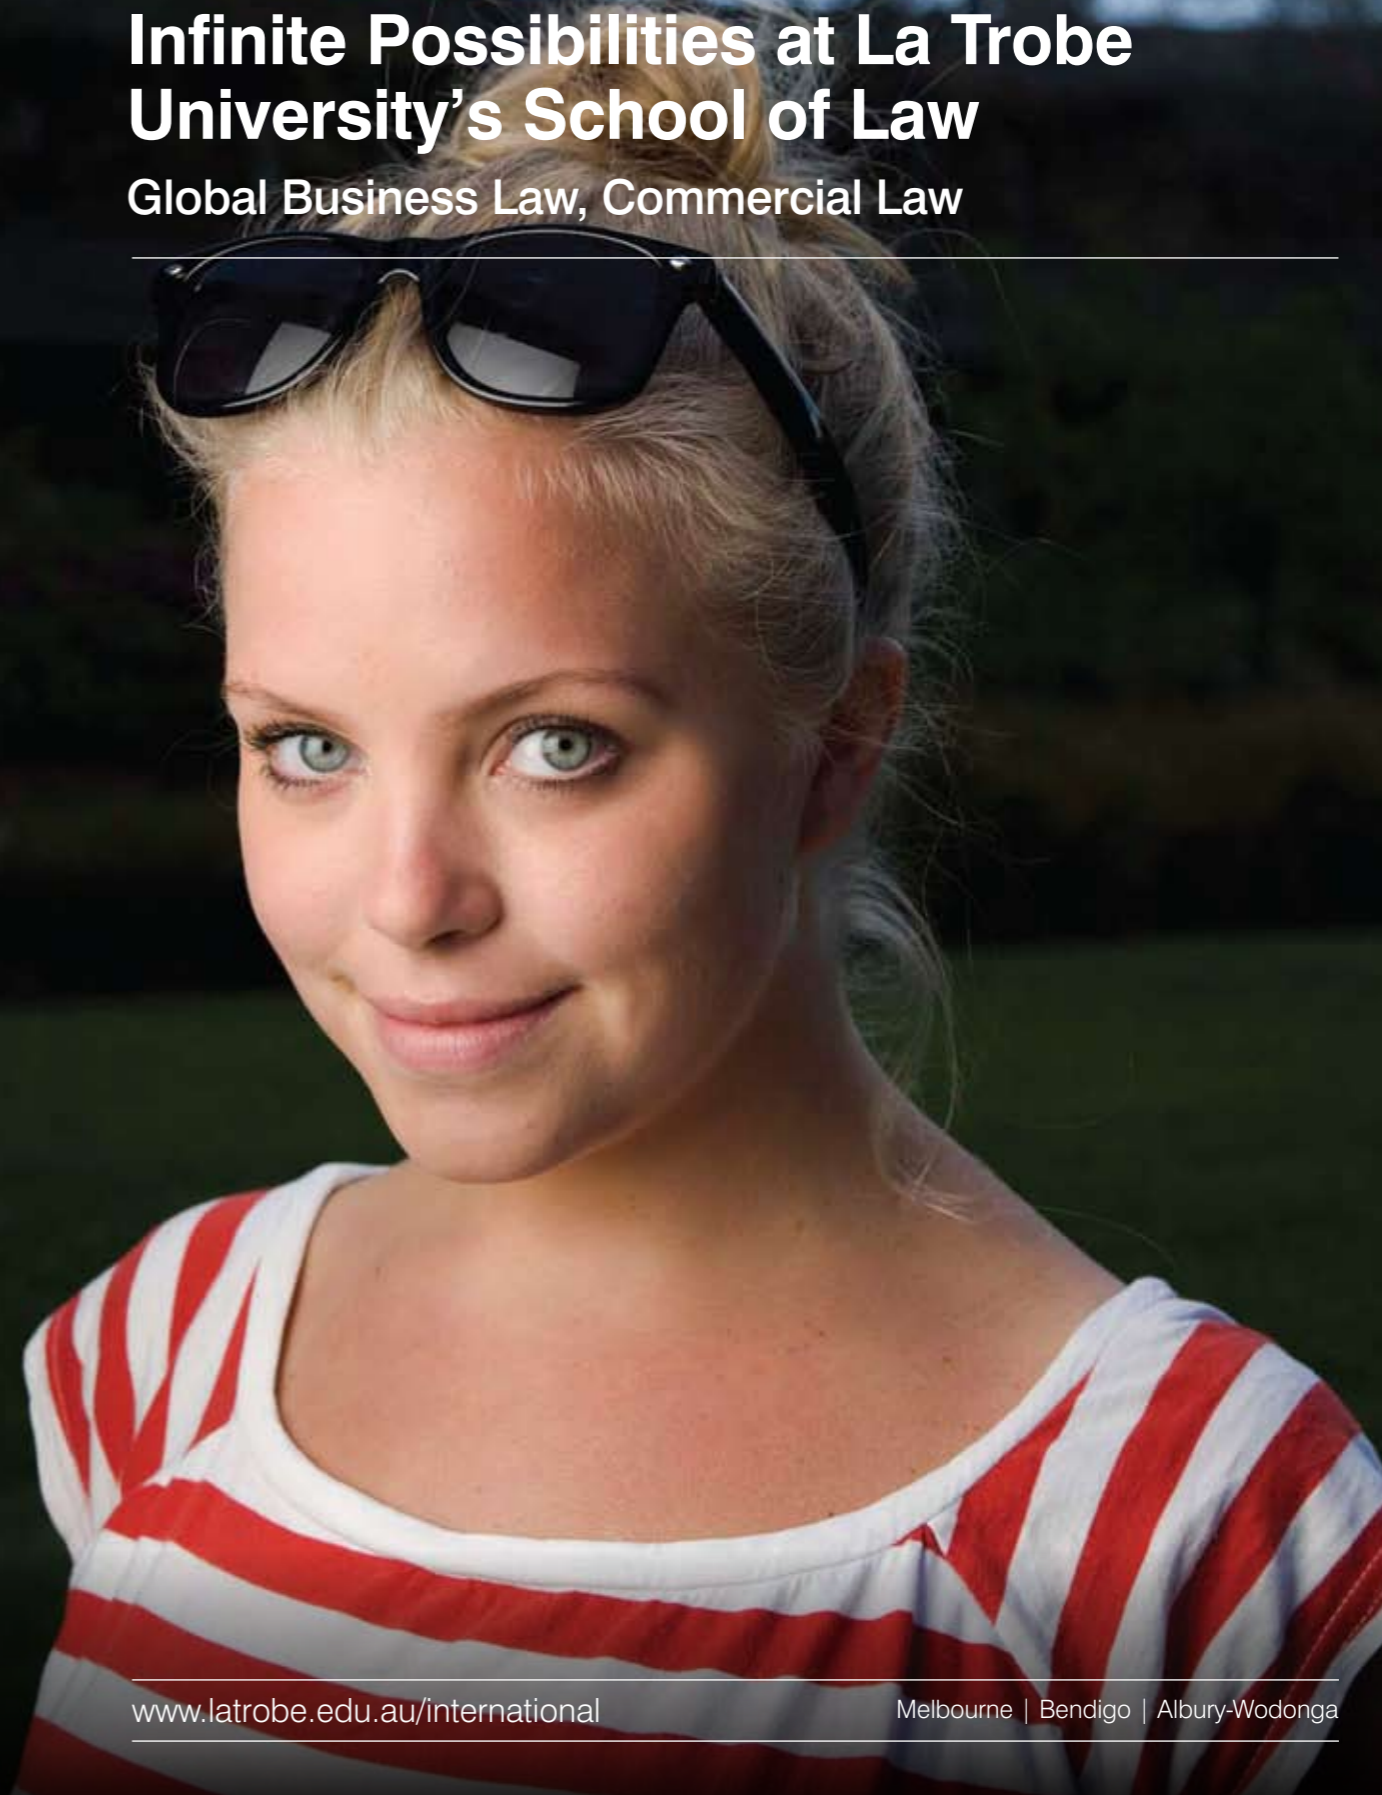

latrobe.edu.au/handbook

Infinite Possibilities™

Infinite Possibilities at La Trobe University's School of Law

Global Business Law, Commercial Law

www.latrobe.edu.au/international

Melbourne | Bendigo | Albury-Wodonga

The Faculty of Law and Management at La Trobe University offers unique, globally-recognised postgraduate programs for graduates seeking an international edge in law. Explore infinite possibilities with these programs in 2010: the next exciting step in your legal career.

Graduate Certificate in Global Business Law

Course Duration	6 months
2010 Annual Tuition Fee ($A)	$10,615
Campus	Melbourne (Bundoora)
Semester Starts	January, June and December

This program presents as an opportunity for law graduates and certified practising accountants to study commercial law in areas of global interest taught by some of the world's leading academics and commercial practitioners. An extensive range of subjects in US, European and Asian Law prepares graduates for a career in an international business and legal environment.

Students complete any four subjects from the Master of Laws in Global Business Law program. Graduates with satisfactory results are able to articulate into the Master of Laws in Global Business Law.

Academic Entry Requirements

An Australian Bachelor of Laws or approved international equivalent, or full membership of the Institute of Chartered Accountants Australia and CPA Australia.

Career Opportunities

Graduate opportunities are available in the legal profession, in politics, business and commerce, in government service and public administration.

Additional Information

All subjects in this program are offered in five-day block release mode usually between teaching period one and teaching period two, June-July, and over summer, December-February, so students should plan their arrival accordingly.

Master of Commercial Law

Course Duration	1 year
2010 Annual Tuition Fee ($A)	$21,230*
Campus	Melbourne (Bundoora)
Semester Starts	January, June and December

Corporations increasingly require employees to have a knowledge of commercial law issues. This program is an opportunity for those without a legal qualification to gain a solid background in domestic and international commercial law, taught by some of the world's leading academics and commercial practitioners. An extensive range of subjects in US, European and Asian Law prepares graduates for a career in an international business or a legal environment.

Students complete a minimum of 8 subjects with an optional minor research paper (worth 2 subjects), for a total of 120 credit points. Students select subjects from those offered in the Master of Laws in Global Business Law.

"I was amazed by the flexibility of the program, which allowed me to 'fast-track' my degree by taking classes in the summer school. The classes are small and allow for plenty of student/lecturer interaction and discussion."

Jan Apking, Germany

Academic Entry Requirements

An undergraduate Bachelor's degree from an Australian university, or approved international equivalent, or progression from the Postgraduate Certificate in Global Business Law with an appropriate grade average.

Special Requirements

Students with no prior legal studies must enrol in the subject Introduction to Australian Law (LAW5IAL), which runs in a five-day block release mode in July.

Career Opportunities

Opportunities available include academia, business and commerce, government service, politics, and public administration as well as work in the legal environment. Skills such as legal research techniques, legal reasoning, the evaluation of rules and policies, the presentation of written and oral arguments and the ability to communicate in plain English, may be utilised in a wide range of occupations.

Additional Information

All subjects in this program are offered in five-day block release mode usually between teaching period one and teaching period two, June-July, and over summer, December-February, so students should plan their arrival accordingly.

English Language Requirements

Courses	IELTS (Academic)	TOEFL* Computer-Based Test	TOEFL* Paper-based Test	TOEFL* Internet-based Test	English for Further Studies
Graduate Certificate in Global Business Law	A minimum overall band score of 6.5 with no individual band score less than 6.0	A minimum score of 233 with a score of 5 in essay writing	A minimum score of 575 with a score of 5 or more in the test of Written English	A minimum score of 88 with no individual score less than 22	Completion of the English for Further Studies Advanced Stage 5B certificate at PG (postgraduate) level available from the La Trobe University Language Centre; or approved equivalent
Master of Commercial Law
Master of Global Business Law
Master of Laws in Global Business Law

*All TOEFL results should be sent directly from TOEFL to La Trobe University. Please note our institution code is 9785. Please note you must have satisfied these requirements within the two years before enrolling at La Trobe.

Master of Global Business Law

Course Duration	1 year
2010 Annual Tuition Fee ($A)	$21,230*
Campus	Melbourne (Bundoora)
Semester Starts	January, June and December

The practice of law is increasingly a global business. The era of globalisation increasingly requires people with a business or any background to have an understanding of commercial law issues. This program presents an opportunity for non-lawyers to be equipped with an understanding of domestic and international commercial law in preparation for a career in an international business and legal environment. Students may study in subject areas of global interest, including international business and arbitration law, and US business and corporations law. Students complete eight subjects; a minor research paper of 10,000 words may be substituted for two subjects.

Please note: Introduction to Australian Law is required for those who have no background in law.

Academic Entry Requirements

An Australian Bachelor's degree, or approved international equivalent, or progression from the Graduate Certificate in Global Business Law with an appropriate grade average.

Career Opportunities

Academia, the legal profession, politics, business and commerce, government service, and public administration as well as the legal environment.

Additional Information

All subjects in this program are offered in five-day block release mode usually between teaching period one and teaching period two, June-July, and over summer, December-February, so students should plan their arrival accordingly.

Master of Laws in Global Business Law

Course Duration	1 year
2010 Annual Tuition Fee ($A)	$21,230*
Campus	Melbourne (Bundoora)
Semester Starts	January, June and December

The practice of law is increasingly a global business. This course presents an opportunity for law graduates and certified practising accountants to study commercial law in areas of global interest, taught by some of the world's leading academics and commercial practitioners. An extensive range of subjects in US, European and Asian Law prepares graduates for a career in an international business and legal environment. Students may also take Public Interest Law subjects with approval.

Students complete eight subjects. A minor research paper of 10 000 words (30 credit points) may be substituted for two of the eight required subjects. Students may upgrade their candidature to a Juridical Science (Professional Doctorate) or PhD in accordance with University policies and procedures.

Academic Entry Requirements

An Australian Bachelor of Laws degree or approved international equivalent; full membership of the Institute of Chartered Accountants Australia and CPA Australia; or progression from the Graduate Certificate in Global Business Law with an appropriate grade average.

Career Opportunities

Academia, the legal profession, politics, business and commerce, government service, and public administration.

Additional Information

All subjects in this program are offered in five-day block release mode usually between teaching period one and teaching period two, June-July, and over summer, December-February, so students should plan their arrival accordingly.

*Please note that fees listed are for a 120 credit point year and for commencing students for the 2010 academic year only. La Trobe University reserves the right to adjust annual tuition fees for continuing students. However, the University undertakes that any tuition fee will not exceed 7% per annum and will be applied on 1 January each year for the duration of that year.