FOREWORD

This is the fifth annual volume of the La Trobe University Working Papers in Linguistics. The LTWPL series provides both staff and students in linguistics and associated disciplines at La Trobe an opportunity to present their current work.

Linguistics has been taught at La Trobe University for a number of years. A Division attached to the Department of Philosophy was formalised in 1979, with a full-time Head appointed in 1981. Linguistics became a full Department within the School of Humanities in 1988.

Research interests currently emphasised are phonology, syntax, semantics, language typology, sociolinguistics, psycholinguistics, historical linguistics, applied linguistics, lexicography, discourse analysis, Australian Aboriginal languages, Papuan languages, African languages, South-East Asian languages and Germanic languages.
