¹ Electives are normally taken in five out of the six semesters in the course. Any unit of university study may be taken for an elective as long as:

- it is worth at least 15cp (credit points),
- no more than 150cp in the course is taken at first year level,
- prerequisite rules are satisfied and
- timetabling of the unit does not clash with course core units.

See the OEE Electives document for a list of possible units.
