ADVANCED STANDING, ARTICULATION AND CREDIT TRANSFER POLICY

Purpose/ objectives	To establish a La Trobe University system for credit towards programs of study from previous studies or activities. Advanced standing, articulation agreements, credit transfer and recognition of prior learning including non-credentialed learning enhance lifelong learning opportunities for students by facilitating mobility between post-secondary higher education institutions. La Trobe University is committed to this principle.
Scope/ Application	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All campuses • Courses except those that are research-only • Incoming students
Policy Statement	Credit towards an individual course at La Trobe University should only be granted for activities and studies that would form an acceptable part of that course. Credit will only be granted commensurate with academic achievements and consistent with the student's chance of success in the course. Credit for no more than 67% of a La Trobe University program of study should be granted as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For specific La Trobe University subjects (if there is direct correlation between the prior learning and the La Trobe program of study) • For unspecified subjects (if there is no direct correlation, unspecified credit may be granted towards elective requirements of a La Trobe program of study) • For a block component of a program of study (for example, a completed two year diploma may entitle the holder to exemption from the first year of a La Trobe three year degree program of study) In programs of one year or less, credit for no more than one third of the course may be granted. Eligibility for credit does not guarantee a prospective student automatic entry into a La Trobe program of study. Articulation Agreements may be developed by La Trobe University with other institutions to facilitate movement between institutions and standardise the credit awarded to incoming students. La Trobe University, through its Recognition of Prior Learning process, will consider applications for credit based on any kind of prior learning, including formal prior learning, non-credentialed learning (also known as non-formal learning) and informal learning.
