OHS CONSULTATION PROCEDURES

Parent Policy Title	OHS Policy
Associated Documents	OHS Guidelines
Preamble	The purpose of this procedure is to provide practical guidance on meeting the requirements of the Occupational Health and Safety Act and Regulations, which require employers to consult with employees and Health and Safety Representatives on health and safety matters. Consultation should not be seen as a legal requirement, but an essential part of managing health and safety in the university.
General	Consultation is a two-way exchange between employers and employees that involves sharing information about health and safety, giving employees a reasonable opportunity to express views about the matter and taking those views into account when making decisions. Effective consultation can lead to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • More informed management decisions that take into account a wider range of issues about health and safety and how to fix them. • Stronger commitment to decisions • A tried and tested way of dealing with health and safety problems • More openness, respect and trust because employees have a better understanding of each other and other's point of view.
