

Looking to find out more? Want to talk to someone

We understand that you may have found some of the questions and discussion in this interview distressing and/or that this interview may have raised some questions in relation to sexual health.

Please find following some details of organisations and websites that you may like to contact or visit for further information and support.

Counselling and Emotional Support

Reachout

Reach Out! is a web-based service that inspires young people to help themselves through tough times.

<http://www.reachout.com.au>

Lifeline

Lifeline is a not-for-profit organisation offering a number of services, including a 24 hours a day telephone counselling service.

Phone: 131 114

<http://www.lifeline.org.au/>

Sexual Health

Health Insite

Australian Government gateway to health information

http://www.healthinsite.gov.au/topics/Sexual_Health

NSW Government website that includes information on sexually transmitted infections, how to stay safe and details on where to go for help.

<http://www.health.nsw.gov.au/sexualhealth/>

Queensland Government website that includes information on sexually transmitted infections, how to stay safe and details on where to go for help.

<http://www.health.qld.gov.au/sexhealth/>

South Australian Government young adult health website that includes information on sexually transmitted infections, how to stay safe and details of SA youth healthline.

<http://www.cyh.com/HealthTopics/HealthTopicCategories.aspx?p=299>

Melbourne Sexual Health Centre provides free, non-judgmental and confidential diagnosis, treatment and prevention of Sexually Transmissible Infections (STIs)

<http://www.mshc.org.au/Default.aspx?alias=www.mshc.org.au/general>