

Time

Thursday 9th

		Ibis
8.15-8.45	REGISTRATIONS
8.45-9.00	OPENING ADDRESS - Professor Tim Brown, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research)
9-10.30	Alex François
	Local words, shared ideas: Lexical divergence and structural homogeneity among north Vanuatu languages
	Ibis	FS256	FS224	FS229	FS223
10.30 - 11	MORNING TEA
11-11.40	Workshop Grammaticalization and variation in Romance languages Session 1 pg 5	Eira & Couzens. Parameters for a typology for revival languages. Pg 27.	Saclot. On lexical aspect distinction of the actor focus and object focus verbs. Pg 65.	Ellison & Miceli. Less-than-chance similarity and language differentiation. Pg 29.	He. Wildlife naming system in Southern Pumi. Pg 36.
11.40-12.20		Bradley. Language endangerment and resilience thinking. Pg 15.	Jarkey. Raising semantic transitivity with serial verb constructions in Hmong. Pg 39.	Stebbins & Van Der Mark. The linguistic prehistory of the Eastern Bismarcks, Papua New Guinea. Pg 72.	Nash. Toponymy in Kangaroo Island: Folk toponymy and offshore fishing ground names. Pg 58.
12.20-1.00		Schneider. Why field linguists should pay more attention to Applied Linguistic research. Pg 66.	Lees. Non-finite verbs in Balto-Finnic. Pg 48.	Donohue, Musgrave & Whiting. Methodological explorations in historical linguistics: Typological feature analysis does not replicate phylogeny. Pg 26.	Goddard. Furniture, Vegetables, Weapons : The semantics and grammar of functional macro-categories. Pg 33.
1-2.00	LUNCH (ALS Executive Meeting)
2-2.40	Workshop Grammaticalization and variation in Romance languages Session 2 pg 5	Starks & Massam. One post-predicate yes-no question particle in Niuean: Where did it come from and why does it occur where it does? Pg 71.	Jendraschek. Mood and modality in the Basque auxiliary: Semantic redundancy, divergent change, fossilization. Pg 40.	Kawakatsu. Implication for the status of the kedo-form in Japanese syntax-for-conversation. Pg 42.	McKay. Relational processes and verbless clauses in Rembarrnga. Pg 54.
2.40-3.20		Boynton. Perceptions of historical language norms and policies: Wangkatha and the Mt Margaret Mission. Pg 14.	Loughnane. Personal and factual semantics across languages. Pg 50.	Roberts. Doctors, Teachers, Lawyers : Exploring the semantics of human social categories. Pg 63.	Harvey. Prepalatals in Arandic. Pg 35.
3.20-4		Guillemin. A shift in noun denotation triggers a new determiner system: The case of Mauritian Creole. Pg 34.	Margetts. Clause combining and serialization in an oceanic language of Papua New Guinea. Pg 53.	Waters. Semantics of French discourse particles Quoi and Ben . Pg 79.	Mushin. Evidential strategies in Garrwa. Pg 57.
4-4.30	AFTERNOON TEA
	Ibis
4.30-5.30	POSTER SESSION IN IBIS
5.30-6.30	WELCOME DRINKS AT IBIS

Time

Friday 10th

Ibis
8.15-8.45
8.45-9.00	REGISTRATIONS
9-10.30	Alan Dench Reconstructing morpho-syntactic change in the Pilbara languages of Western Australia
	Ibis	FS256	FS224	FS229
10.30 - 11	MORNING TEA
11-11.40	Workshop Languages in Peru Session 1 pg 4	Lasagabaster & Hajek. Saving Basque? An analysis of the evolution of Basque knowledge, transmission and use from 1996 to 2006. Pg 46.	Singer. Formulaicity and productivity in verb-argument interactions: The role of gender agreement in Mawng verbs. Pg 70.	Andrews. 'Grammatical' vs. 'Lexical' Meaning Constructors for Glue Semantics. Pg 9.	Teo. Possessive constructions in Sumi. Pg 75.
11.40-12.20		Musgrave & Hajek. Sudanese languages in Australia: Linguistic demography and language maintenance. Pg 56.	Cutfield. Dislocation and word order in Dalabon. Pg 22.		Morey. Tangsa - A dialect network in North East India. Pg 55.
12.20-1.00		Tadmor & Haspelmath. The typology of lexical borrowing. Pg 73.	Mailhammer. A preliminary overview of the verb in Amurdak and other Iwaidjan languages. Pg 51.	Charters. Samoan ergatives: Analysis and acquisition. Pg 20.	Wright. Reconstruction of Proto-Qiang. Pg 81.
1-2.00	LUNCH (Heads of Department meeting)
2-2.40	Workshop Languages in Peru Session 2 pg 4	Yoong. Standard English and Singlish: The clash of language values in contemporary Singapore. Pg 83.		Nordlinger. Agreement puzzles in Murrinh-Patha. Pg 59.	Loakes, Fletcher & Hajek. Perception of a merger: The case of pre-lateral /e/ and /æ/ in Melbourne and Victoria. Pg 49.
2.40-3.20		Manns. What the mass media reveals about intra-speaker variation: The case of Java. Pg 52.	Asano-Cavanagh. A study of Japanese epistemic modality: The meaning of no da . Pg 10.	Barwick & Walsh. About Murriny Patha song. Pg 12.	Ballard & Charters. How long is a vowel? A first look at quantitative vowels in the vowel system of four year old Samoan speaking children. Pg 11.
3.20-4		Sciubba. How transcription may influence analysis: The case of silences. Pg 68.		Kelly, Nordlinger & Wigglesworth. Indigenous perspectives on the vitality of Murrinh-Patha. Pg 43.	Billington. Location, Location, Location: Regional characteristics and national patterns of change in the vowels of Melbourne adolescents. Pg 13.
4-4.30	AFTERNOON TEA
	Ibis
4.30-5.30	4.30 – 5.30pm AGM at Ibis
5.30-6.30	Conference dinner to follow - 6.30pm at BOKCHOY TANG

Time

Saturday 11th

Ibis
8.15-8.45	REGISTRATIONS
8.45-9.00
9-10.30
Anne Cutler Variation induces native listening
	Ibis	FS256	FS224	FS229	FS223
10.30 - 11	MORNING TEA
11-11.40	Workshop Fieldwork and linguistics pg 6	Gawne & Kelly. Gesture categorisation: Understanding speaker perceptions. Pg 32.	Johnson. A discourse analytic look at how adult children negotiate identity with their parents. Pg 41.	Delves & Stirling. Studying repair in adult-child interactions: Lessons from conversations with typically developing children and high functioning children with autism. Pg 25.	Weber. Is Marrngu a subgroup? Pg 80.
11.40-12.20		Parton. Ready to play: Musician action as social interaction. Pg 61.	Walkley & Simpson. Typing friendship into being: wall-to-wall conversations on Facebook. Pg 76.	Al-Gahtani. The relationship between pragmatic transfer and second language proficiency. Pg 7.	Henderson. Variation and change in Arandic reduplicative constructions. Pg 37.
12.20-1.00		Radhakrishnan. The role of traditional singing performance in unplanned language maintenance. Pg 62.	Kumar. The system of social locus and its grammaticalization. Pg 45.	Cameron. Willingness to communicate (WTC) as a key factor in second language acquisition. Pg 16.
1-2.00	LUNCH
2-2.40	Walsh. 'Linguistic social work' and the 'hopeless cause': The role of linguists in 'dealing with' endangered languages. Pg 77.	Yang. Tone change in Northern Lalo. Pg 82.	De Busser. The semantics of space in Takivatan Bunun. Pg 24.	O'Neill. Indexicality, and address terms and phrases of Australian Arabic youth in friendship groups. Pg 60.	El-Hankari. The syntactic shift of Berber: From VSO to topic-initial. Pg 28.
2.40-3.20	Cutfield. A strategic vision for the AIATSIS Language Program. Pg 23.	Teo. A phonological analysis of tone in Sumi. Pg 74.	Lee. The DP structure in Isbukun Bunun. Pg 47.	Flannery. Pronoun borrowing and 'open' address systems - A broad typological distinction. Pg 31.	Čašule. The Indo-European origin of the Burushaski demonstrative system. Pg 17.
3.20-4		Chan. Cross-linguistic variation in phonology: Phonological variation of syllable-initial /n/ in English, Cantonese and Mandarin. Pg 18.	Schultze-Berndt. When non-finite verbs are not verbs. The role of parts of speech systems in a typology of finiteness. Pg 67.		Facundes. Productive compounding as a path for the historical development of noun classification systems. Pg 30.
4-4.30	AFTERNOON TEA AND CLOSING ADDRESS AT THE IBIS
4.30-5.30
5.30-6.30					