

RESEARCH POLICY BROADSHEETS

These broadsheets provide descriptive information from the Good Starts Study for Refugee Youth around specific topics or themes.

The broadsheets form part of the dissemination strategy for findings from the Good Starts Study. Some broadsheets will be used as a focal point for policy advocacy through roundtable discussions with key stakeholders on the various topics.

The purpose of the broadsheets is also to make study findings available in a format that can be easily used by the research team and others (service providers, educators, policy makers) in training, professional development and other presentations.

The broadsheets will be available in pdf format, once released at:

- http://www.latrobe.edu.au/rhrc/refugee_youth.html#broadsheets

The following broadsheets will be released in 2007/2008:

- Broadsheet #1 What keeps refugee boys in school (September)
- Broadsheet #2 Partnerships with police (October)
- Broadsheet #3 Refugee girls and school (November)
- Broadsheet #4 Refugee youth, discrimination and bullying (December)
- Broadsheet #5 Refugee youth and the school context (December)
- Broadsheet #6 Refugee youth, reproductive and sexual health (January/February)
- Broadsheet #7 Refugee youth and driver safety (February)

For any queries about the broadsheets please email Christine Bakopanos at bakopanosc@foundationhouse.org.au

