

La Trobe University Citations for Outstanding Contribution to Student Learning 2009

Mr Paul Emery, School of Management

For the introduction of innovative and engaging student-centred teaching that enhances students' readiness for graduate employment, through enthusiastic delivery, professional support and the use of authentic problem based activities.

Ms Nicola McNeil, School of Management

For sustained and outstanding teaching activities that engage and empower students to learn, through the provision of a student-centred learning environment that is supported by innovative teaching pedagogies and an online learning platform.

Dr Nora Shields, School of Physiotherapy

For innovative and effective approaches to engaging physiotherapy students in learning

Dr Ana Maria Ducasse, School of Historical and European Studies

For developing innovative assessment and curriculum practices which develop effective communication skills and engage learners with content in a bilingual subject

Assoc Prof Alberto Gomes, School of Social Sciences

For over twenty years of sustained excellence in teaching anthropology to large undergraduate classes and inspiring and motivating students to engage in social activism.

Dr Svetlana Petelina, School of Engineering & Mathematical Sciences

For innovative cognitive-based curriculum design and teaching approaches in Physics for Life Sciences

Alternate Format Service (Team Leader: Darren Britten), Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Centre

For excellence in disability service provision through innovative and effective processes that assist in the timely supply of quality material for students with print disabilities.