

FRIENDS OF 121 VIEW STREET

121 View St, La Trobe University Visual Arts Centre, is a contemporary visual arts facility incorporating a contemporary art gallery, state of the art auditorium, open access print workshop, postgraduate artist studios and self-contained accommodation for visiting artists. The projects and programs that are generated from the Centre are designed to promote activity and discussion in the field of contemporary visual arts, to increase professional opportunities for artists and to provide distinctive cultural and educational opportunities for the communities of central Victoria.

Your involvement and support is invaluable to the Visual Arts Centre so we invite you to support us by becoming a "Friend of 121". In addition to the virtues associated with supporting an important cultural resource, "Friends of 121" will receive

- A season ticket to the La Trobe Animation Media Arts Festival
- Discounts on Print Workshop hire fees & short courses
- Concession rate on Bendigo Film Society memberships
- Tailored art excursions
- Social activities including studio drinks with the "Artists in Residence"
