

Asian Studies

Key transferable skills

Skills you will obtain in this degree that are transferable across many career options.

COMMUNICATION

CRITICAL THINKING

TEAMWORK

PROBLEM SOLVING

CULTURAL LITERACY

RESEARCH

Australia's future is more interwoven with Asia than ever before. A major in Asian Studies allows students to explore Asian cultures, languages and societies, while supporting them to become global citizens ready to embrace opportunities arising from a booming Asian economy.

Career pathways

Graduates will be well placed to find employment in a range of roles directly or after further study. Common roles include:

- Cultural diversity manager
- Policy adviser
- Diplomat
- Research assistant
- Teacher/tutor
- Foreign correspondent journalist
- Cultural adviser
- Financial adviser for international markets
- Global marketing specialist
- Foreign consultant
- Translator/interpreter
- International trade specialist

Discipline specific/technical skills

Technical skills that you will develop as part of your course.

- Inquiry and research
- Critical evaluation and analysis
- Ethical and cultural awareness
- Effective communication
- Creative problem solving
- Social research methods
- Writing and cultural literacy

Major employers

Graduates have found jobs in a range of organisations including:

- Government agencies
- Public service
- Universities
- Financial institutions
- Media networks
- Secondary schools
- Tourism councils
- Law firms
- Humanitarian aid agencies
- International trading companies
- Research institutes
- Marketing and advertising companies

Source: LinkedIn Live Alumni, Burning Glass Technologies

Boost your employability

BROADEN YOUR SKILLS

CONNECT WITH INDUSTRY

MANAGE YOUR CAREER

GAIN EXPERIENCE