POSTGRADUATE GLOBAL MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

La Trobe's Global Master of Business Administration will help you become the adaptable leader businesses are looking for.

Be ready for any challenge and develop the skills and knowledge underpinning agile leadership. Wherever you are in your career, this degree will help you build industry-ready skills to take your next step. Build expertise applicable in business, including financial knowledge and how to harness digital disruption. Go beyond just understanding business strategies – explore how top management leaders develop plans.

Learn from business experts in La Trobe Business School, hear guest lectures from experienced industry members, complete projects that prepare you for the workplace, and get the option to apply your knowledge in a real-world placement with one of our industry partners.

Students undertake a business work placement or business consulting project and apply theoretical concepts they have studied in the GMBA to address workplace problems or development issues using problem-based enquiry and learning. From the human skills of negotiation and communication to the strategic experience to translate data into action, you will build your ability to lead in business.
