

POSTGRADUATE HEALTH

For those who want to not just help people but help shape the future of person-centred care, La Trobe's innovative approaches to learning give you the skills to make a difference.

In a rapidly changing health landscape, there's a growing need for qualified health professionals who can help reshape our approaches and commitment to care. At La Trobe, you can choose from a wide range of health courses – whether you want to broaden your skills, take on a new challenge or focus your studies on your specific interest. From art therapy to speech pathology, you can pursue your passion, learning from industry experts who can help you become a well-rounded health practitioner, and graduate with the expertise needed to succeed in your career.

Our expert staff will guide you through high quality academic programs, honing your skills for your future career. Study in purpose-built facilities that simulate real-life scenarios, like our on-site clinical schools and multipurpose skills laboratories. Gain first-hand experience with state-of-the-art equipment, then head into strategic placements with industry partners. Work with major public hospitals, disability service providers, and communities to improve health in rural and regional areas, and graduate ready to change people's lives.
