

La Trobe College Excellence Scholarships Terms and conditions

Local Students

La Trobe considers you a local student if you are:

- a citizen of Australia, or
- a New Zealand citizen, or
- a humanitarian or other permanent visa holder.

1. This scholarship is only valid if accepted by the deadline detailed in your scholarship offer letter.
2. This scholarship is available for both full-time and part-time study.
3. This scholarship applies only to full-fee places.
4. This scholarship will remain valid if you take an approved leave of absence and return to study.
5. This scholarship will not be valid if you defer the commencement of your course to a study period later than the period of commencement detailed in your letter of offer.

6. Transferring excellence scholarships

You can only transfer your excellence scholarship to another course if:

- the course is in the list of eligible courses
- the course has available excellence scholarships to offer and
- your application for transfer is successful (requiring students to meet the course entry requirements).

7. Commencing students at La Trobe University are only eligible to only receive one scholarship.
8. As a recipient of the La Trobe College Excellence Scholarship, you are not eligible to also receive the Alumni Advantage (10% discount).
9. This scholarship will not apply to tuition fees of any subject you withdraw from after the census date. If you choose to withdraw from a subject after the census date, you will be liable to pay the full tuition fees for the subject.
10. If you withdraw from your course (voluntarily) and at the time of withdrawal, you have not completed at least 50% of the credit points of your course (as at the date of your admission to that course), you will be required to repay to the University the value of all discounts applied to your studies from the point of admission to the point of withdrawal, in addition to any outstanding fees.
11. You will not be required to repay to the University the value of all scholarship discounts if you withdraw from your course in opting for an early exit or alternative exit, provided such early exit or alternative exit has been approved by the University in accordance with its policies.
12. The above terms and conditions may be updated during the period of your study. You will be notified via your La Trobe email with any changes.

International students

La Trobe considers you an International student if you are:

- a citizen of a Country other than Australia, or New Zealand.
 - are not a humanitarian or other permanent visa holder.
 - a temporary visa holder.
1. This scholarship is available for both full-time and part-time study (where part-time study is approved and compliant with visa conditions).
 2. This scholarship applies only to full-fee places.
 3. This scholarship will remain valid if you take an approved leave of absence and return to study.
 4. This scholarship will not be valid if you defer the commencement of your course to a study period later than the period of commencement detailed in your letter of offer.
 5. Transferring excellence scholarships
You can only transfer your excellence scholarship to another course if:
 - the course is in the list of eligible courses
 - the course has available excellence scholarships to offer and
 - your application for transfer is successful (requiring students to meet the course entry requirements).
 6. Commencing students at La Trobe University are only eligible to only receive one scholarship.
 7. As a recipient of the La Trobe College Excellence Scholarship, you are not eligible to also receive the Alumni Advantage (10% discount).
 8. This scholarship will not apply to tuition fees of any subject you withdraw from after the census date. If you choose to withdraw from a subject after the census date, you will be liable to pay the full tuition fees for the subject.
 9. If you withdraw from your course (voluntarily) and at the time of withdrawal, you have not completed at least 50% of the credit points of your course (as at the date of your admission to that course), you will be required to repay to the University the value of all discounts applied to your studies from the point of admission to the point of withdrawal, in addition to any outstanding fees.
 10. You will not be required to repay to the University the value of all scholarship discounts if you withdraw from your course in opting for an early exit or alternative exit, provided such early exit or alternative exit has been approved by the University in accordance with its policies.
 11. The above terms and conditions may be updated during the period of your study. You will be notified via your La Trobe email with any changes.