

Kirk Gibson

Program Advisor The Voice Inc

Kirk Gibson is an international development practitioner working in the Pacific, Timor-Leste and Australia for over 15 years. He has worked on education, governance, leadership, workforce development, TVET and youth development projects for a range of NGO's and Australian Government funded programs. He is passionate about the thinking and thinkers behind community development and about supporting locally led development. He currently works for a Papua New Guinean led organisation called The Voice Inc. He is currently undertaking his PhD at La Trobe University, supervised by Dr John Taylor and Dr. Lisa Denney. He can be contacted on k.gibson@latrobe.edu.au.

