LA TROBE ART INSTITUTE SCULPTURE PARK

The La Trobe University Sculpture Park is nestled in the beautiful bushland setting of the University's Melbourne campus, and features works from every decade since the establishment of the University in the mid-1960s.

The collection reflects key movements and trends in contemporary Australian sculpture, including pieces by Inge King, Robert Klippel, Leonard French, Karen Ward and Reko Rennie. Explore our large grounds and meditative gardens all year round, to discover, contemplate and enjoy this important collection of sculptures.

Location:
La Trobe University, Melbourne Campus,
Plenty Road & Kingsbury Drive, Bundoora VIC 3086

Opening times:
The La Trobe University grounds are open all year round to the public.
