Please take note of the following:

1.

Funds will be refunded to the original bank account from which the payments were made. The University's preferred method of refund is by Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT). Please be advised that under the Anti Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing Act 2006 as well as the current Refund Policy of La Trobe University, funds need to be refunded to the same account it was paid from i.e. original International Bank Account and/or Credit Card. All International Students must contact La Trobe University (IntOperations@latrobe.edu.au) before applying for a refund. Please refer to the La Trobe University Refund Policy and Procedure for more information. Please refer to the La Trobe University Complaints and Appeals Policy for more information.
2.

Please provide copies of payment receipts with your refund application to determine source of payment.
3.

Refunds may not be given if you are discontinuing your enrolment and have not returned your La Trobe student card. Full refunds may not be given for variations of enrolment (discontinuation of enrolment, leave of absence) after the census date. Please refer to census date page for more information.
4.

In accordance with the Higher Education Support Act (2003), any overpayment of fees may be used as credit against any current and future liabilities with the University.
